Subject: International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People

Dear Nidal,

In commemoration of this International Day of Solidarity with the Palestinian People, we, the members of the Israeli Two-State Coalition, would like to express our full-hearted support for the right of the Palestinians to have their own national State of Palestine, living side by side in peace and dignity with Israel, and our commitment to work together in order to realize this cause. For too many years, the conflict and the occupation have spread violence, humiliation, and oppression.

Despite the many obstacles and the widespread feeling of despair, history shows that justice must win, and that often, times can seem darkest just before the dawn. The coming year will contain many challenges, but also promises to bring new opportunities. Together, we can ensure that the two-state solution returns to the policy agenda, internationally, regionally, and locally.

The future of the next generation depends on us and on our efforts to deliver peace, security, and dignity for both nations. We will continue to work with you to make this a reality.

Sincerely,
Yariv Oppenheimer – Director of the Two-State Coalition
And Member Organizations of the Israeli Two-State Coalition
